

FMUN 2025: FAIPS MARKS ITS LARGEST AND MOST DYNAMIC EDITION

Fahaheel Al-Watanieh Indian Private School (DPS), Kuwait proudly hosted the 2025 edition of the Inter-School FAIPS Model United Nations (FMUN) on the 17th and 18th October 2025. Set against the picturesque backdrop of its expansive campus, the conference brought together a distinguished assembly of leading Indian and British schools in Kuwait.

FMUN 2025 stood out as the largest and most dynamic edition to date, with a remarkable delegate pool of 156 participants, reflecting the ever-growing scale and prestige of the conference. Over two days, the FAIPS campus was transformed into a vibrant epicenter of intellectual discourse and diplomatic dialogue, fostering camaraderie and collaboration among students across Kuwait.

Under the visionary leadership of Secretary-General Shreyash Mohapatra and Deputy Secretary-General Pearl Dsouza, the conference unfolded with seamless precision, strengthened by the expert guidance of the Headmistress, Ms. Harvinder Anand and guided by the unwavering mentorship of esteemed faculty members—Ms. Anju Tripathi, Ms. Rajula Raja, Ms. Vimala Shibu and Ms. Smitha Raj Vineed.

Over the course of several hours of rigorous committee sessions, delegates demonstrated exceptional diplomacy and negotiation skills as they tackled some of the world's most pressing issues. The seven committees of FMUN 2025 each presented a unique set of agendas and challenges, encouraging delegates to engage in insightful discussions, exchange diverse perspectives, and craft innovative, well-rounded solutions through meaningful debate.
